Sigles et partis

EEP :

Le Groupe du Parti Populaire Européen (Groupe PPE) est le plus grand groupe du Parlement européen.

Il rassemble les forces politiques pro-européennes du centre et du centre-droit des différents Etats membres de l'Union européenne ayant comme objectif une Europe plus compétitive et démocratique, plus proche de ses citoyens, et une économie sociale de marché.

S&D
Socialistes et Démocrates du Parlement européen
ALDE
Alliance des Démocrates et des Libéraux pour l'Europe (en France, élus MODEM)
EFA
Les Verts-Alliance Libre Européenne. L'Alliance libre européenne (ALE) est une alliance de partis politiques régionalistes en Europe. Elle forme un groupe avec le Parti vert européen au sein du Parlement européen[1].

GUE/NGL

Le groupe confédéral de la Gauche unitaire européenne/Gauche verte nordique (GUE/NGL) est un groupe politique du Parlement européen qui regroupe des partis de gauche, de tendance socialiste, antilibérale, anticapitaliste, écosocialiste ou communiste. Il regroupe essentiellement des organisations membres du Parti de la gauche européenne (PGE), mais aussi de l'Alliance de la Gauche verte nordique, de la Gauche anticapitaliste européenne ou sans affiliation. Il regroupe des partis allant de la gauche radicale à l'extrême gauche[2].
